A.R.T. PARISHES MAGAZINE

Welcome to the June 2025 Edition of the Magazine for the Churches of Anslow, Rolleston-on-Dove and Tutbury.

Editor: As the Vacancy is still with us, and is likely to be with us for some time, I have selected a topical piece from the internet that reflects on the time between Easter and Pentecost where it is usual to reflect on the themes of faith, love, and ongoing discipleship. Also, the reflection of the power and significance of the Resurrection.

A Pastoral Letter from the Most Revd and Rt Hon Stephen Cottrell, Archbishop of York.

Dear friends,

As we find ourselves in the Easter season, eagerly awaiting Pentecost, I wonder what we can learn from the first disciples (unaware of what will soon happen), and their unbridled joy and enthusiasm at having their beloved Teacher back among them?

Perhaps there is a lesson here about spending time with God. By studying scripture and praying faithfully, we get to know the heart and mind of God.

This teaches us how to live and be in the Church and in the World. As we strive to become more like Christ, we need to allow ourselves to be shaped by God rather than the world.

There is so much anger in the world (some righteous, much that isn't). There is so much pain in the world, so much suffering and sorrow. So often, we see things from one perspective, and there is a lack of kindness, generosity and hospitality in what we see in others. So we need to learn to see things differently, to sing a different song.

We mustn't be like those people who have eyes but do not see and ears but do not hear.

No. Let us commit ourselves this Easter, sure in the hope of the resurrection, to see and hear, to do kindness and mercy, to love justice, to walk humbly with our God.

Let us go out of our way to care for others and to reach out to those in need.

Let us pray without ceasing.

Let us live as an Easter people, all parts of Christ's body working together to make God known in this world. Let us live as a people of love!

Yours in Christ

Stephen

Services:

Our services continue to be well attended. It would be wonderful if we could encourage families to come. Sadly we are lacking young people which would make a huge difference to the life of the Church.

Your Grade II beautiful Village Church needs your support.

The Church is a most welcoming place and we have been fortunate to have the pleasure of some great retired clergy to take our services. A massive thank you to them and to our Churchwarden Barry who has the daunting task of finding clergy for us during the time we will be without a vicar. Let's hope it won't be too long before a replacement vicar can be found. We are lucky to have Mark Halsall who is willing to take the services when no clergy are available.

A lot of work goes on behind the scenes to make sure Holy Trinity runs smoothly. A big thank you to all involved.

Easter Sunday:

Our Service was lovely thanks to Revd Robert Ellis. The Church was beautifully decorated as always so a massive thank you to all those who gave up their time and to those who donated lilies and spring flowers.

Annual Parish Church Meeting:

It was lovely to welcome the Rural Dean Revd Robin Trotter to chair our meeting. All went well and we are pleased to say our brilliant Churchwardens Barry and Mark agreed to stand again

/..... for the next year as did our amazing PCC members. Mark is our current Deanery Synod Representative. There is a vacancy so if anyone would like to fill this post please speak to Mark.

Ann Lowe has agreed to stay as PCC secretary for another year. It was great to welcome Helen as a new PCC member in 2025.

Acknowledgement:

The Church has been left a legacy of £5,000 by the will of Mr Reginald Waltho. Our grateful thanks and our prayers go out to his family at this sad time.

We have also received a cash donation of £100 from one of our supporters.

We are most grateful to think that people have thought of Holy Trinity.

We have a lot of maintenance/repair work that needs to be carried out and these kind donations will go some way in helping us to pay those bills.

VE Day 80 years:

A big thank you must go to those who decorated the Church and the gates for this very special Anniversary.

Churchyard:

The gardeners have mowed most of the Churchyard now so it is looking good. We are struggling with the strimming. If anyone could help us out we would be most grateful. Please contact Ann on Tel: 01283 812428. Hopefully by the time you read the magazine the summer bedding will be planted.Continued on Page 8/

/Continued from Page 7.... May we respectfully ask those bringing flowers to the graves "Please do not use GLASS vases". These can prove to be a hazard to those working or visiting the Churchyard.

CWGC:

We are pleased to say we now have permission from the Diocese to install a Commonwealth War Graves Commission (CWGC) sign to honour the grave of Tom Taberner. The sign is to be installed and maintained by the Commission.

Anslow WI:

The 13th May meeting was well attended. This was our AGM and 'Friendship Supper' Our guest for the evening was Women's Institute Adviser and 'Rollestonian of the Year' Verity Connor.

It was with much sadness that members were informed of the passing of Beryl Horry. Beryl was a long standing member and committee member since 1996. We send our love and thoughts to her family and her close friends in the WI. Ten Committee members were voted and approved for 2025/6 and it was great that Barbara Goodwin was re-elected as our President. The secretary, Treasurer, and all committee members were thanked for their brilliant work in the past year. Our financial position is good and our membership has remained steady./

/.... The Supper table as usual on these occasions was full of delicious food provided by everyone.

Members enjoyed a good night at Nelsons Gin and Tasting Distillery.

Future events:

Dovecliffe Afternoon Tea.

Birthday Outing at Burton Rugby Club on 15th July.

The next meeting is on Tuesday 10th June. The speaker will be Crime Fiction Writer Simon Michael.

Churches Enjoyed Bumper Easter Attendances

Clergy have reported packed services over Easter, as increasing numbers of young people are coming to church.

It follows the recent survey by the Bible Society, which found that the share of the population who attend a service a month has risen from eight per cent in 2018 to 12 per cent last year. But surprisingly, the figures for those aged 18 to 24 have quadrupled, to 16 per cent.

Philip North, Bishop of Blackburn, said that the numbers at services were up by as much as a half in some areas. He said that, despite so much recent bad publicity about the Church, "there is such a hunger for faith, especially among the young."

The rector at one church in London said: "The world is a much more frightening and chaotic place than when I was growing up. People in their 20s and 30s have had two major financial crashes, a pandemic, a land war in Europe, a housing crisis. The world is not a place for optimism right now. The stability and comfort that God can provide is something that appeals to young people."

Churches certainly provide a sense of community, a social network as well as a spiritual one, which can help young people who are struggling to connect with others.

The Bible Society survey also found that Catholics may become the largest denomination in Britain, for the first time in 500 years. Anglicanism, on the other hand, could fall behind Pentecostalism, and become the UK's third largest denomination.

The Anglican share of regular churchgoers of all ages fell from 41 per cent in 2018 to 34 per cent in 2024, while at the same time the Catholic share rose from 23 per cent to 31 per cent.

The Bible Society survey also found that, whereas in 2018 just four per cent of 18 to 24 year-olds attended church once a month, now 16 per cent of the same age group are doing so.

And, although British people are still more likely to be non-believers, those who are Christian are practising their faith with greater zeal.

Meanwhile, the Church of England has seen a boom in visits to its church-finding website, with views on AChurchNearYou.Com soaring. Visits last year hit 198.6 million – up from 128.1 million in 2023 and a rise of more than three quarters on the previous year.

The figure does not include the 9.7-million-page impressions from the site's army of local editors, who maintain and update parish pages, adding and tagging worship services, events and community action projects such as food banks.

Economy

The vicar asked a member of his congregation, a banker, why he seemed a bit down. The banker replied: "I'm a walking economy! My hairline is in recession, my stomach is a victim of inflation, and both of these together are putting me into a deep depression."

Understand

Sometimes I think I understand everything – but then I regain consciousness.

Life in the Circus?

A couple who worked at the circus wanted to adopt a child. Social workers had doubts about their suitability, but the couple produced photos of their large motorhome, which was equipped with a beautiful nursery. As for education, not only was there a nanny, but also a full-time tutor to teach the child all the usual subjects along with French, Mandarin and computer skills. Finally, the social workers were satisfied and had only one last question. "What age child are you hoping to adopt?"

"Oh, we don't mind at all," the couple assured them. "As long as he or she fits in the canon."

Sweets

I gave my four-year-old grand-daughter money for sweets and the church collection plate. Later, seeing her enormous pile of sweets, I got suspicious and asked if she hadn't also given some money to God in church that morning. "No," she replied sweetly, "He wasn't there."

Get a grip

It was said that Archbishop Tench of Dublin, in his later years, had a fear of sudden crippling paralysis. One night at a formal dinner he sat looking more and more forlorn. Finally, he confided to the guests around him: "Well, it's come at last – total lack of feeling in my right leg." Whereupon the lady sitting next to him said soothingly: "Not at all, your Grace. It will comfort you to know that during the whole of this meal it has been my leg that you have been pinching!"

Crooked politicians

The editor of a small country newspaper, furious over several government bills that had recently been passed, printed a scathing editorial with an enormous headline: 'HALF THE LEGISLATORS ARE CROOKS.'

Many local politicians were outraged and exerted tremendous pressure on him to print a retraction. He finally gave in to the pressure and ran his apology with the headline: 'HALF OF OUR LEGISLATORS ARE NOT CROOKS.'

VE Day - Thursday 8th June

VE Day Celebrations were commemorated in Tutbury, starting with the Street Party on the previous Sunday. The weather that day could have been kinder. Nonetheless, a good time was had by all.

On VE Day itself, It commenced with the Flag Raising with music from the Waterloo Pipes and Drums. This was followed by and excellent concert by the Tutbury Band in Church. It was really great to have the Tutbury Band performing once again in Church with the near-perfect acoustics of this venue. Roger, our organist was on hand to accompany the singing. The Mayor and Mayoress were present and the Church was packed!

The evening culminated with the Beacon Lighting at the castle (good to see the gates open, if only briefly).

A huge thank you to all the many people who had a part in the organisation of this splendid evening and all the village celebrations. It was great to see Tutbury pulling together for this momentous week.

In case you might have noticed, there was no flag raised from the Church Tower for the celebration. The reason was that the flagpole is still awaiting repair.

There are two beneficiaries this Year each receiving an equal share of the nett proceeds. They create memories for families for whom time may be short due to life limiting or terminal conditions. Visit www.meanddee.co.uk for more information on this most worthwhile of charities.

Parish Mission Action Plan

Archdeacon Megan has recently met with the Benefice's Churchwardens to support them during the Vacancy. She has said that the selection and recruitment of an incumbent would greatly benefit an up-to-date Mission Action Plan from each Parish. The candidates would then have a much better idea of what he or she can expect in each of the parishes and hopefully result in a good fit. The next joint Benefice PCCs' meeting with Megan is on 16th June.

Thank you for those who have kindly contributed news and information for this publication. However, I am still keen to have the contribution load spread wider to provide say a developing style change or just to relieve my aching brain and workload. I would hate for this Magazine to become (even more??) boring.

One suggestion is make this magazine more appealing to a wider audience with more pages to cover events in the wider community within the Benefice boundaries.

Benefice Confirmations - 6th July

Following invitations announced in Benefice Churches recently for persons wishing to re-confirm their faith though the sacrament of Confirmation, we have been informed that Bishop Matthew will be presiding at a Confirmation Service to be held at St Mary's Priory Church, Tutbury at 10am on Sunday, 6th July.

If you wish to be confirmed, there is still time to contact one of your Churchwardens in your parish.

Benefice Recipe

Bread in any form is always a good standby in the summer for sandwiches for picnics or for lunchtime breaks in the sunshine from work. This month, we feature:

Brie and Basil Bread

Recipe (Makes One Loaf)

500g Wholemeal flour, plus extra for dusting
50ml Olive oil
1 tablespoon Salt
20g Yeast
Water to mix
100g Brie Cheese thinly sliced
A handful of freshly chopped basil leaves

Method

Put the flour, olive oil and salt into a large bowl and rub the mixture together. Dilute the yeast in a little warm water and add to the bowl.

Slowly add the water, mixing with your hand as you do, until all the flour has been / /.... incorporated and your dough feels soft to the touch.

Tip the dough out onto a lightly floured surface and knead for 6 minutes until you have a pliable dough. Put back in the bowl and leave to rise for 2 hours.

Line a baking tray with greaseproof paper.

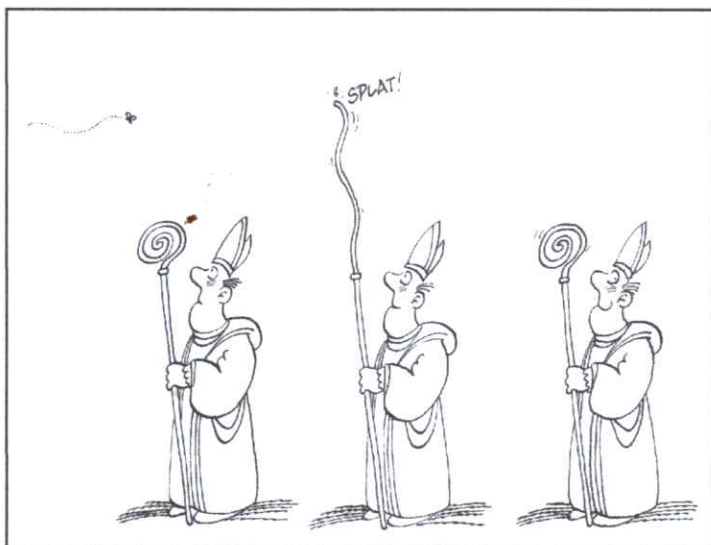

Tip the dough out onto your floured surface and, using your hands, shape into a mini baguette (French stick). Then, place on the baking tray. Coat the top with wholemeal flour and make several slashes in the dough with a knife down the middle.

Push the Brie and Basil into the slashes, then rest the dough for 2 hours.

Preheat the oven to 200°C/400°F/Gas Mark 6. Bake the bread for 20 minutes until golden brown, then transfer to a wire rack to cool.

Enjoy with any savoury fillings as a sandwich or just a still-warm slice or two with butter
