A.R.T. PARISHES MAGAZINE

Welcome to the November 2025 Edition of the Magazine for the Churches of Anslow, Rolleston-on-Dove and Tutbury.

Editor: For this edition with the continuing vacancy, Our retired minister who lives in the Benefice, Rev'd Dave has kindly provided the pastoral letter - Thank you Dave for all you do for us:

Dear Friends,

Here we are in November with another year fast coming to a close. It has been quite a year, hasn't it, with most of the world engaged either in warfare, natural disasters or selfish pursuits.

As I write this our hopes are being raised by the Peace Agreement between Israel and Hamas, which embraces much of that region also. From an inhumane attack on the people of Israel, we have seen much death and destruction. Mr Putin continues his relentless attack on the people of the Ukraine for no other reason than wanting their land. Here in our country, we are currently in the midst of a crisis caused by illegal immigrants which has divided opinions up and down our nation.

At the beginning of November, we remember the division this country went through in the 16th and 17th centuries. A time when our monarchy went from being Roman Catholic to Protestant causing great upheaval and sowing the seeds of the plan to blow up the King and the house of Lords in one act, The Gunpowder Plot.

Then on the 11th of November we remember those who gave their lives in the wars that have been since 1914. We will stand in silence after saying, "We will remember them." We well might, but as we gaze back over just the last eleven months has the sacrifices that have and are being made been justified by the actions of this generation?

The shops are being filled with Christmas cards and decorations declaring "Peace on Earth, Goodwill to all Men," is this another empty phrase?

Jesus died for our sins on a Cross, and He rose again declaring eternal life to all who follow Him, and not just 'pie in the sky when we die,' but life to the full here and now. He tells us to forgive our enemies, go the extra mile, and put out the seeds of hatred and revenge with His Love. Jesus is the Prince of Peace, to those who embrace Him whatever creed, custom, language or culture.

At the end of this month, we get Advent Sunday and a time to repent of divisive ways and embrace the teachings of Jesus fully so that we can play our part in bringing about peace on earth.

Dave Robbins

Associate Minister .

The Benefice is now in Vacancy pending the appointment of a new incumbent Rector.

It is therefore important to check Facebook, NIPs, Parish websites and emails, and/or contact the appropriate churchwardens for latest information and news .

Harvest Festival.

Our Harvest Festival on 21st September went well. We had quite a good congregation including some children which was lovely. It was also the Baptism Anniversary of Luke. He received a gospel book and re-lit his baptismal candle. The Church was as usual on these 'Special Days' beautifully decorated with flowers, Autumn foliage and fruit.

Many thanks must go to Pat, Jean, Joy and Ann for arranging them. Thanks also to those who donated money, flowers and greenery. A massive thank you goes to Mac who vacuumed the Church and made us all life saving cups of tea.

On the day, members of the congregation brought tins, dried goods and a cash donation which were all collected by Tom from the Burton YMCA. He was really pleased with the amount and said a thank you letter will follow.

Harvest Supper:

On the 25th September 68 of us sat down to a delicious and plentiful 3 course meal prepared by our lovely Claire and helpers. Thanks Claire your meals, particularly the 'Big Sausage Roll' were as always eagerly devoured. Many compliments regarding the meal were received on the night. After the Meal 'The Harmonics Choir entertained us with their beautiful voices. The Auction item donated by Ben Robinson (Hospitality in his Private box for 2 people you could go back for//.... people also including match day tickets for Burton Albion) raised the grand amount of £200, this plus the generosity of people buying raffle tickets helped us raise the brilliant amount of £1562 for Church funds.

It was lovely to welcome Revd Dave Robbins who gave the vote of thanks. A huge thank you to all those who helped before and during the event, our auctioneer Gerald Wright, to those who donated money, a large percentage of the food, auction item, raffle prizes and table centres and most importantly their time.

Thanks to those who came to support us, we couldn't have achieved this amount without your generosity. Next year we are going to hold this event in October and there will be a change of menu, which will include home-made Pie, Mash and Peas. Date is to be confirmed in the near future.

Skittles at the Village Hall:

29th November: Hope you have your tickets for this brilliant event as they sell out fast. Ring Terry on 515503 to reserve your place. Bring your own drinks and glasses.

Christmas Market at Village Hall:

6th December. 10.00am to 1.00pm.

Loads of stalls, a great morning, come and meet with your friends for coffee and cake. Donations of cakes and raffle/tombola prizes would be much appreciated.

Churchyard:

By the time you read this hopefully the pansies will have all been planted in the borders.

Anslow WI:

The meeting on the 14th October was well attended. Our speakers for the evening were Elaine and Julie (The Potty Potters) They gave a most interesting talk which I will report more on next time. Our Macmillan Coffee Afternoon on 20th September was a huge success.

We raised the amazing amount of £1,105.40 through the sheer hard work of volunteers and the generous donations received from local /.... businesses and others. Forms were available to purchase cards for sale in aid of 'Footprints Academy' Kenya.

The children had designed and painted them while two of our members Angie and Catherine were visiting. The 'Bring and Buy' stall was very popular. The Breakfast Club continues to be well attended as does our darts evening. The next meeting is 11th November. There is a change to the programme and we welcome Sue Davis with a talk /demo entitled 'A Very Merry Christmas' with Mince pies and a chocolate or two. The competition is 'Handmade'

News and Views

Archbishop Sarah Mullally, has warned peers in the House of Lords that legalising assisted suicide in England and Wales will “change society” by endorsing the idea that “some lives are not worth living”.

Archbishop Sarah Mullally, recently appointed Archbishop of Canterbury, ex Bishop of London & the former Chief Nursing Officer for England, was concerned about those who could face internal and subtle pressures to end their lives if assisted suicide were introduced – particularly in the absence of adequate palliative or social care, or out of fear of becoming a burden on their families.

“I understand the fear of many that they may be offered free assisted death before they are offered the care and equipment that they may live,” she said.

As the Church of England’s lead bishop for health and social care, the Bishop of London was speaking as the House of Lords debated the Terminally Ill Adults (End of Life) Bill in late September.

The Private Member’s Bill, brought by the MP Kim Leadbeater, completed its Third Reading in the Commons in June with a reduced majority of just 23 votes amid mounting concerns about its safety.

“I am deeply concerned that so many in this Parliament are not heeding the voices of professional and representative bodies that are raising the alarm.”

She also rejected the central claim that the Bill would offer people choice at the end of their lives.

“A meaningful choice would see the measures in this Bill set alongside equally available, fully funded palliative and social care services,” she said. “Without the choice offered this choice is an illusion.”

“To change the law is to change society,” she added. “If passed, this Bill will signal that we are a society that believes that some lives are not worth living.

“This Bill would become our State-endorsed position, and our NHS would be active in its delivery.”

“I believe in a God who’s very being is life, and in that gift we can discover meaning, dignity and innate worth, even if we are dying.

Nonetheless, the assisted dying bill has passed its second reading in the House of Lords, moving it another step closer to becoming law. The Bill now goes to a select committee for further scrutiny, with a deadline of reporting back to the House of Lords by 7th November, before it can move to the next stage.

Duck

I have a severe nonlinear waterfowl issue. (I don't have all my ducks in a row.)

Morning

There are two kinds of people in the world. There are those who wake up in the morning and say, "Good morning, Lord," and there are those who wake up in the morning and say, "Good Lord, it's morning."

Hear, hear

A very deaf elderly man was finally fitted out with a hearing aid that really worked. A month later his doctor called him in for a check-up. "Your family must be really pleased that you can hear again."

The gentleman replied, "Oh, I haven't told my family yet. I just sit around and listen to the conversations. I've changed my will three times!"

Where there's smoke...

At our church, it was common for the minister to invite the children to the front of the church and have a small lesson before beginning the sermon. He would often bring in a household item, and then relate it to a teaching from the Bible.

One morning, the visual aid for his lesson was a smoke detector. He asked the children if anyone knew what it meant when an alarm sounded from the smoke detector. My young son immediately raised his hand. "It means Daddy's cooking dinner."

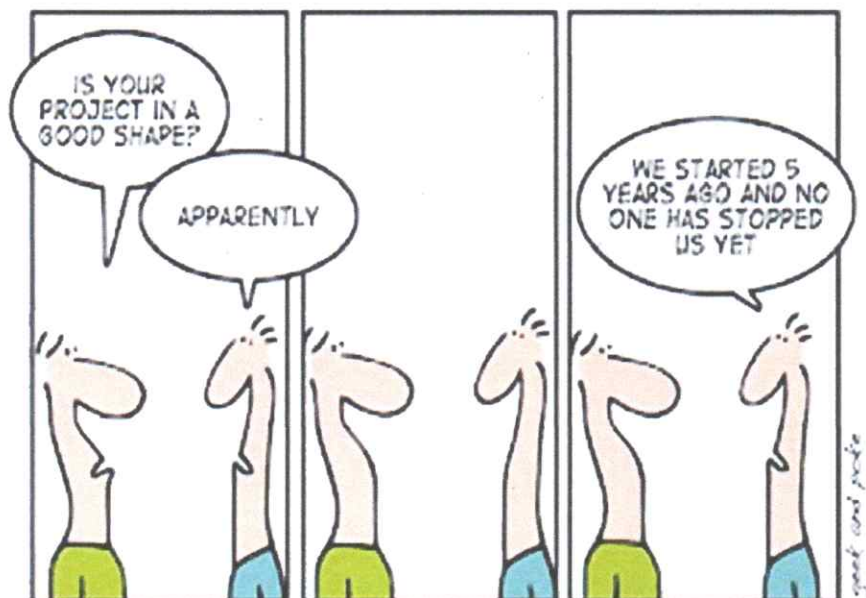

Blood Type -- A pessimist's blood type is always b-negative.

Groan... Somebody just threw a handful of Omega 3 tablets at me! It's okay, I only suffered super fish oil injuries.

Quiz Night - September 20th OGS.

This Autumn fundraiser was so popular that it was moved into the church as there were so many teams. David Wynne has, again set a face to face ,which was enjoyed by all. The questions were a clever mix and made us all think hard. The refreshments were much enjoyed in the interval and helped fuel brains trying to remember answers buried deep down in a memory bank. Everyone was very generous and with the raffle we made £369 profit. Our thanks go to David Wynne our wonderful quiz master and to Barry Gooding for transforming the church for the evening into a comfortable quiz venue. Congratulations to Sue Fraser & her team ,who were worthy winners.

Harvest Festival & Bring & Share Lunch September 28th

A very uplifting harvest service was led by Revd. Robin Trotter. Tamsin, our organist for the morning, played well known harvest hymns with gusto. He reminded the congregation how lucky/

/.... we all are to have food and how many are less fortunate and need our help. The array of groceries was delivered to the YMCA along with monetary donations collected at the Harvest Bring & Share lunch. A wonderful amount of £116.50 was given to YMCA funds. The table was groaning and those who attended enjoyed a lovely get together with good food and good company. It was lovely to have time to meet up and chat.

'Fool's Gold' - A Talk by Dr Gareth Williams October 17th

We are really looking forward to this talk in the church which is proving very popular with great ticket sales.

Shoebox Appeal

Please remember to bring in your items to go in the shoe boxes and your completed shoeboxes by November 2nd. £3 is all that is needed to transport each box, so a donation would be appreciated. Please put your donation in an envelope and hand it in to Lee or Vivien. Any spare shoe boxes and Christmas wrapping paper would be still be gratefully received.

Last year, we had some fantastic contributions from local Rolleston residents. Please let Vivien know 07772 447727 if you are available to help make up the boxes, as this is a huge but very rewarding job. Thank you for your support. This is a great opportunity to bring much needed joy at Christmas.

Rolleston WI Update:

Dr Anne Featherstone returned to Rolleston WI to give a fascinating talk about the author and journalist, Rose Buckner, who wrote about homemaking during World War II

/.... and in post war Britain. She had her own column in the Sunday People giving hints and tips to make the lives of wives & mothers easier. This talk gave a fascinating insight into the woman's role in the home and women's expectations at this time. We were also lucky to be visited by two Staffordshire PCSOs, who reminded us all that their role was to protect women against violence and abuse. They offered members small alarms to use if they felt threatened whilst out and about.

On October 11th, Staffs Federation held a Literary Lunch at the Scouts HQ, with author Shirley Mann talking about her romantic fiction based on her mother's diaries from World War II. Everyone enjoyed good food and a very powerful talk by Shirley, herself a journalist & a stickler for research, when creating her wartime women.

November 22nd is our very popular Christmas Fair to be held at Scouts HQ at 2.00pm.

On November 3rd Tim Coltman presents 'The Story of Two Crosses'.

Rolleston WI welcomes visitors & those interested in joining our vibrant group. Please contact Liz on 07802 889315

Our October meeting was a poppy craft evening, which was delivered by one of our member's Karen. Our members had the opportunity to produce a felt poppy brooch to wear on Remembrance Day with donations being given to the Royal British Legion. We all enjoyed a very entertaining evening with some nifty needlework demonstrated by our members. A big thank you to Karen from us all for organising the event as it was obvious there was a lot of time and effort gone into preparing our packs and resources for the evening. The winners of our competition were: 1st Kate, 2nd Sally and 3rd Shirley.

Our November meeting will be on Thursday 9th and our guest speaker is Vanessa Morgan. Her talk will be entitled "stories Grandad told". Our competition will be a photo of Grandad. I am looking forward to sharing memories and photos of our Grandads. To many of us they are or have been an important part of our family lives. Our members are looking forward to attending the "Its Christmas" event at the Staffordshire showground this month with a chance to catch up with WI members/

Benefice Matters

Search for our new Rector Update

Further to the first Pre-vacancy meeting of the three Benefice PCCs with Archdeacon Megan and the Patron's Representative, Rev'd Andy Wooding-Jones in St Mary's Priory Church, Tutbury on Monday, 16th June, the three parishes' churchwardens and treasurers have now had their second meeting with Archdeacon Megan and other Diocese representatives on 1st October. The meeting was considered to have been beneficial and productive.

They are now tasked to provide photographic illustrations of the life and events in each parish to be included in the next draft of the document. The final document, of course, will ultimately be used as a prospectus to attract the most suitable priest candidates.

If you want to see more about the process, this website will give you further information: <https://cpas.org.uk>. We continue to pray very earnestly for a good result for our Benefice

A Remembrance Prayer

Remembrance

In November we come to remember
How war tore our country apart,
From village and town and all around
Men and boys left home and hearth.

Mothers and wives and sisters all
Saw their brave young men go away,
For some it meant the ultimate price
As they gave their tomorrows for our today.

Another Man left His home above
To rescue this world from sin,
It cost Him His life which He freely gave
So new life could enter in.

In this world there will always be war,
But the time will surely be
When the earth shall be filled with the glory of God
As the waters cover the sea.

Benefice Recipe

Editor: This month, I put forward another simple but very tasty variation on a Cheese tart. Great as a snack or a light lunch with salad. It serves four.

Leek, Ham and Brie Slice

Recipe

A large knob of butter
3 leeks, sliced
Salt and pepper
375g (13oz) ready-rolled puff pastry
175g (6oz) piece of ham cut into cubes
*300-350g (10—12oz) Brie, cut into wedges
1 egg yolk
A splash of Milk
Olive Oil for Drizzling

Method

Melt the butter in a large saucepan and once sizzling, add the leeks and cook over a medium heat, without colouring, until they start to soften. Season with salt and pepper, then drain and leave to cool.

/.... Preheat the oven to 200°C/400°F/Gas 6. Lightly brush a baking tray with oil, unroll the puff pastry and place on top. Using a fork, prick the base several times leaving a clear 2cm (3/4") border around the outside.

Add the ham to the leeks and spoon onto the pastry. Arrange the Brie wedges across the surface. Brush the pastry border with egg yolk mixed with the milk.

Bake in the oven for 20 - 25 minutes until the pastry is golden brown. Leave to cool slightly before drizzling with a little oil. Cut into slices to serve.

There are many soft-rind cheeses that can be used in place of Brie. Try a Camembert. If you are visiting a specialist cheese shop or Deli, you can try a Coulommiers, a Sharpam from Devon, or an Irish Cooleney.
